ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

About the Charities

Collegiate Recovery Community

The Ohio State University Office of Student Life's Collegiate Recovery Community is a supportive peer community that offers specific programming to support students in recovery from alcohol and other drug addictions. The CRC helps students meet their academic, personal and professional goals to enhance their quality of life and maintain long-term recovery.

Trini Foundation

The Trini Foundation's mission is to bring the life-changing practice of Ashtanga yoga to those suffering from drug and alcohol addiction in order to support the recovery process. In addition to yoga classes and scholarships, the Trini Foundation partners with wellness professionals, such as therapists, nutritionists, and life coaches to provide the resources for those newly sober to successfully navigate the road to recovery.
