

Recovery House

At Penn Place

The Recovery House at Penn Place provides a mainstream college living experience where students in recovery from addiction can live and learn together. Located near campus, the house provides a community of peers to support one another in their journey through college and recovery.

Recovery House Details:

- 28-bed residence hall
- Open year-round
- Available to Ohio State undergraduate, graduate and professional students
- Two people to a room with a private bathroom
- Within walking distance of recovery support meetings
- Located on south campus by Younkin Success Center and Marketplace
- Residents must achieve a minimum 6 of months of continuous abstinence from drugs and alcohol prior to moving in

To fill out an application for the Recovery House, please visit go.osu.edu/recovery

To fill out a housing contract for the Recovery House, contact housing@osu.edu

For more information email: recovery@osu.edu

